ACE represents BSU classifieds

Ballots from over 75 percent of BSU’s classified employees recently elected the following officers of the newly formed BSU Association of Classified Employees (ACE):

Gail Maloney, president; Debi Martin, vice president; Viola Boman, secretary; two-year term senators Doris Butler, Mark Holden, Sandy Lee, Bonnie Stewart, Ken Wiscombe; and one-year term senators Mary Cozine, Ann Fisher, Katherine Geile, Joe Johnson, and Margene Muller.

According to Maloney, ACE is not a union, a lobbying or grievance group, and no membership dues are required.

“We hope ACE will be comparable to the Faculty Senate, Associated Student Body, and Associated Professional Staff,” Maloney said.

“The plan is to keep classified employees informed of university issues and communicate your views to the university policy making units. I would urge you to submit suggestions and ideas for improvement in your area to a member of the senate or one of the officers,” Maloney said.

The organization was recognized and accepted by BSU president John Keiser April 17, when the 1981-82 operating budget for printing and miscellaneous expense items was also approved.

The ACE president will represent the classified employees in meetings of the President’s Cabinet.

Officers of ACE will meet May 6 at 2:30 p.m. in the Personnel Department conference room.

Students show ceramics

The annual spring BSU festival of ceramics is scheduled May 9-11 from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. each day in the University Museum of Art, Liberal Arts Building.

Many ornamental and utilitarian ceramic objects will be on display and for sale at the show, with prices ranging from $5-up.

A percentage of the sale proceeds will go toward bringing ceramic designer Jerry Rothman, Laguna Beach, Calif., to Boise State in October.

Published by the BSU News Services Office, Administration 123, 385-1577
Boise State University "hoboes" will take to city sidewalks and parking lots Friday, May 1, in the 27th annual Hobo March for BSU Vocational-Technical scholarship funds.

Sealed on the $300 waterbed which will be won by the person raising the most money in the May 1 annual Hobo March for Vocational-Technical School scholarship funds are Miss BSU, Debbie Hall, a student in the Vo-Tech office occupations program, and Bob Kel, Manager of Waterbeds, Unlimited, Boise, the donors.

Colorfully attired volunteers will solicit donations from pedestrian and parking traffic from 6:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Proceeding the annual fund drive, Vo-Tech students and faculty will hold a "hobo jungle" yard sale April 29-30 from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. on the BSU campus. Proceeds from the yard sale will go to the Curtis Memorial loan fund for vo-tech students.

The sale will be conducted Wednesday in the enclosed "bull-pen" by the Mechanical-Technology Building and Thursday in the BSU Stadium parking lot at the corner of University Drive and Broadway Avenue.

Donations from faculty and staff for the yard sale will be accepted in the mechanical technology building room 109. Call Max Lamborn at 385-3405 if you have "hobo jungle" donations worth $5 or more which need picking up.

Silver medallion nominations due

Nominations for recipients of Boise State silver medallion awards should be sent to the President's Office by May 1. Faculty, students, alumni, and citizens who have outstanding records of achievement or who have made meaningful contributions to the university are eligible for the awards.

Apply for overseas grants

The Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES) has more than 500 Fulbright university teaching and post-doctoral research positions open in over 100 countries for 1982-83.

Application deadlines are June 1, 1981 for the American Republics, Australia and New Zealand; and July 1, 1981 for Africa, Asia, Europe and the Middle East.

Persons interested in obtaining more information about the Fulbright program, or who need help in filling out program applications, should contact Dr. John Robertson, BSU's Faculty Fulbright Advisor, 385-3856.

Russian music featured

Works by several modern Russian composers will be featured when the Boise State University History Department presents a program in Russian music on Tuesday, April 28 at 8 p.m. in the BSU Special Events Center. Boise State history student Chuck Enlow, piano, and music major Jennie Fick, horn, will perform solo pieces by Scriabin, Rachmaninoff, Blier, and Borodin, as well as a quintet for piano and winds by Rimsky-Korsakov. Admission is free and the public is welcome to attend.

Jobs available

Contact the affirmative Action Office, 385-1979, for information on faculty and staff positions now open.

Assistant coach, women's basketball
Biologist, visiting professor, 1 year
SUB, assistant director of student activities/student organizations
Art, photography instructor
Data processing assistant/associate professor
Accounting, assistant/associate professor
Respiratory therapy, director of clinical education
Communication, 2 positions, associate/assistant professor, communication, journalistic writing
Geology & Geophysics, 2 positions, assistant professor, geology, geophysics
Mathematics, assistant professor computer science, mathematics education
Sociology, Anthropology, & Criminal Justice Administration, visiting professor, criminal justice

Contact the Personnel Office, 385-1616, for information on classified positions now open.

Career and Financial Services, student loan coordinator; principal clerk
Administrative Services, senior clerk
Physical Plant, custodian

Mexican workshops

For those interested in experiencing a little south-of-the-border culture this summer, BSU is offering two workshops.

A Mexican culture workshop June 8-19 will be taught by Dr. Norman Gardner, professor of management and finance. The study tour will include a ten-day stay in Mexico City, with excursions to other cities and villages throughout the country.

Cost of the study tour, not including food and personal expenses, will be $999. Regular course registration fees will also be required.

Boise State will also offer three weeks of intensive language study during a Spanish language and culture workshop July 19-August 8 at the Instituto de Filologia Hispanica, Saltillo, Mexico.

Participants will stay in homes with Saltilian families and attend five hours of classes a day, giving them an opportunity to sharpen their language skills while learning about the history and culture of Mexico.

Cost of the program will be $925, which includes room and board. Regular course registration fees will also be required.

For more information about these sessions, contact Linda Urquidi at the BSU Center for Continuing Education and Summer Sessions, 385-3993.

Brubeck Quartet plays

The Dave Brubeck Quartet in Concert is scheduled to play Monday, May 4, at 8 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom. Tickets for the concert are $8.50 for adults and $6.50 for BSU students. They will be sold at the SUB information booth and the Musician's Pro Shop, DJ's City of Sound and Record Exchange.
Medical ethics expert speaks

Dr. Albert R. Jonsen, professor of Bioethics at the University of California at San Francisco School of Medicine, and a recognized leader in the field of medical ethics, will speak at BSU Friday, May 1.

"Four Persons in Danger of Death" will be the title of his lecture to be given at Boise State University at 3 p.m. in room 112 of the Education Building. The public is invited to attend at no charge.

Deferred Comp.

benefits available

Last fall many Boise State employees enrolled in the new deferred compensation program now available to state employees.

Darlene Sloneker, BSU representative for the program with Idaho Benefits, Inc., will return to the campus May 4-8 to meet with those who wish to enroll effective July 1, or those now enrolled, who wish to make a change in their program effective July 1. She will be available in E-221, 385-1360.

Sloneker will give a one-hour session on May 4 and 5 at 9 a.m. in Library 308-C, May 6 at 4 p.m. in L310, and May 7 at 4 p.m. in L308C.

Reserved parking now

Reserved parking spaces on campus may be renewed through Aug. 7 at the Parking Control Office A 118 from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. weekdays.

Cost for renewing the spaces from Sept. 1, 1981 through mid-May, 1982 is $35 and must be paid by Aug. 7.

No renewals will be made after Aug. 7, and all non-renewed reserved spaces will be sold to faculty, staff, and students beginning Aug. 31.

Handicapped faculty, staff and students with a permit from Student Advisory and Special Services may purchase reserved parking spaces Aug. 17-21 for $5.

June 1, $5 parking decals for non-reserved spaces will go on sale.

Students plan recitals

Boise State University music students Linda Yordy and Dawn Beal will present a combined flute, horn, and trumpet recital Wednesday, April 29, at 4:40 p.m. in the BSU Recital Hall. The public is invited to attend the program free of charge.

Northwest Nazarene student pianist Keith Cockerill will perform in a guest recital free to the public Friday, May 15, at 8:15 p.m., in the BSU Recital Hall.

Cockerill is a student of piano professor Madeleine Hsu.

High school artists here

The works of Idaho high school artists will be displayed in the eighth annual Boise State University High School Art Exhibit April 27-May 8, in the Boisean Lounge of the BSU Student Union Building.

A show preview and reception for the artists will be April 28 from 2-4 p.m. in the Boisean Lounge. The public is invited to attend the reception and show, which includes 96 entries from sixteen Idaho high schools.

Presenting a check of $2,400 from the First Security Foundation to Boise State President John Keiser and Business School Dean Tom Stitzel, left, are Scott Nelson, right center, Vice President and Manager of the Main Branch of First Security Bank, and Mahlon Park, First Security Vice President. Four $500 scholarships will be awarded to BSU sophomore or junior students majoring in banking and finance. The Foundation has also donated $400 to BSU for the purchase of finance and economics books, services, and periodicals.

How to survive divorce

Mon Huff, BSU social work professor, will speak on "How to Survive Your Divorce" April 28, at 7:30 p.m., in Lindsey Hall at the Boise First Presbyterian Church, Ninth and State.

The discussion is sponsored by Divorce Lifeline of Idaho, Inc.

Economic conference

The economic and political impact of the Northwest Energy Bill, the Sagebrush Rebellion, and the growing competition for water in the Northwest are just a few of the current resource issues that will be raised when some of the nation's leading economists and resource specialists meet in Boise for the 15th Annual Pacific Northwest Regional Economic Conference April 30-May 2.

All sessions will be held at the Red Lion-Riverside.

Cost of the conference is $75, or $15 for each half-day for those who cannot attend the entire conference. Persons interested in registering may send their checks, payable to the FNW Regional Economic Conference, to Don Holley, Economics Department, 385-3351.

Women's management conference set

A Women in Management Conference is scheduled Tuesday, May 5 in the Big Four Room of the Student Union Building. The conference program, which will run from 8:15 a.m.-4 p.m., will feature talks and a panel discussion on assertiveness and motivation.

Cost of the conference is $25, which will include lunch and refreshments. Those interested in reservations may contact Harry Hoch, director of BSU's Professional Development Programs, 385-1293.

Don't miss the annual student art exhibition in the University Museum of Art, Liberal Arts Building, through May 8.
Four concerts highlight spring

Four spring concerts will highlight late April and early May at Boise State.

The BSU Orchestra will feature four Boise Philharmonic soloists Tuesday, April 28.

Playing Bach's rarely performed "Brandenburg Concerto No. 2" will be Kathy Tanabe, violinist, Pam Blout, oboist, Galindo Rodriguez, trumpeter, and James Watkinson at the harpsichord. They will be joined by BSU student flutist Darla Pumphrey.

Blout and student trumpeter Andy Plamondon will be the soloists for Aaron Copland's "Quiet City" during the second half of the program.

The orchestra is directed by Michael Samball.

Trumpet and percussion ensembles directed by Rodriguez and Dr. John Baldwin will join for a concert Friday, May 1. Rodriguez will perform Vivaldi's "Concerto for Two Trumpets," and Alan Black, percussion graduate assistant and member of the Utah State University faculty, will conduct "Variations for 10 Percussionists."

"The Percussion Ensemble will also perform the extensive pre-recorded tape work "Forests of the Sun" by Tim Clark.

May 2, the BSU Opera Theater has scheduled an evening of scenes from well-known musicals and operas.

Directed by Victor Chacon, Steve Jonson, Pam Piccard, Bernadette La Fond, Don Walker, and Cathy Sanzotta will sing in scenes from "The King and I," "The Man of La Mancha," "Tosca," and "The Consul." An abridged version of "Hansel and Gretel" by Humperdine will also be performed.

The Meistersingers, Lab Singers, and Concert Band will combine in a program May 3 directed by Wilber D. Elliott, Dr. Gerald Schroeder, and Mel Shelton.

Soloists for the performance are singers Sharon Oliver and Keh Easterling. Horn player Neil Barson will perform Mozart's "Concerto No. 2."

The combined groups will conclude the concert with the "Coronation Scene" from Moussorgsky's opera "Boris Godunov."

All four of the concerts will be at 8:15 p.m. in the BSU Music Auditorium, where tickets will be available at $3 for adults, $1 for students and senior citizens, and free to BSU personnel and students.

Classified ads

WANTED: Large in-house envelopes. Mail or bring to News Services, Ad. 123.

NEED A TILLER? Call Ken, 344-5613, after 3 p.m.

DO YOU HAVE OLD COPIES of the BJC, BSC Alumni Bulletin, Contact Don Haacke, Special Collections Librarian, 3925. If you have issues from the following years: 1955-59, 1961-66, and 1970.

DO YOU HAVE HOUSING available for Boise State University students to rent? Contact the BSU Student Residential Life Office in room 110 of the Administration Building, telephone 385-1786, to list your rentals. Listings which discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, or handicap will not be accepted.

NCG STUDENT would like to house sit for summer or year in Boise. Call Barry, 467-8487. Leave message if not at home.

MIKE CHADEK, wife, (non-smokers) and two well-behaved pre-schoolers will be available June 1 to house sit. Call 375-3565, leave message with Betty.

Historians confer

Nearly 100 historians from throughout the Northwest will meet at Boise State University to discuss a variety of topics, ranging from the history of nuclear power in Idaho to the beatnik literature, during the History Honorary Society's annual conference April 24-25.

Conference sessions will be in the Student Union Building from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. each day. The public is invited to attend any of the presentations free of charge.

For more information, or to register for the conference, contact the History Department, 368-1255.

TKE's plan river race

The Boise State University chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity will sponsor the 11th annual Boise River Raft Race Saturday, May 2.

Registration for the race is from 9-10:45 a.m. at Barber Park, where the race to Ann Morrison Park begins at 11 a.m. Entry fee is $7.

Entry forms for the TKE raft race are available at the BSU Student Union Building Information Booth and at the TKE House, 141 Warm Springs Avenue, Boise.

For further information about the race, contact Gene Hayes or Neal Wilson, 342-9209.